Paxos & Antipaxos Islands

Paxos and Antipaxos are true jewels and two paradise islands, located within ... nautical miles south of Corfu. The perfect choice for a Daily Charter to explore with style and comfort, the wild nature and gorgeous caves of the west side of Paxos island, light blue waters of famous Voutoumi Beach of Antipaxos and the Venetian town of Gaios with its graphic promenade. Many spots are accessed only by boat, making Paxos and Antipaxos an exclusive holiday destination with the best variety of charming bays, luxury villas and fine dining.

North Corfu

One of the most green and picturesque islands of Greece, Corfu is located in the North West side of the Ionian sea. Historically the island has always been well developed due to its strategic location in the entrance to Adriatic Sea. Nowadays Corfu is a cosmopolitan and modern place with an excellent choice of activities for every demand. The North East coastline of Corfu is a fascinating combination of tiny secluded bays from Agni to Kassiopi, including the protected natural area of Erimitis. Further to the North, there are unique rocky formations of Cape Drastis and the famous cliffs of Canal D'Amour.

West Corfu

The West side of Corfu island is graphic, isolated and endlessly spectacular. From Porto Timoni to Paleokastritsa and Paradise Beach, the prevailing wind of Mistral has created the cliffs and rocks of exceptional beauty. Enjoy the view of Old Byzantine Fortress, that for ages has guarded the island and a picturesque 13th century Monastery of Virgin Mary. Explore the hidden gems of Corfu and enjoy your swim in crystal clear waters!

Diapontia islands

An island complex, that includes Othonoi, Ereikoussa and Mathraki is the most North - West located part of Greece and the Ionian Sea. Endless blue waters and geological rock formations, create the perfect conditions for diving and snorkeling activities. Diapontia islands are not yet spoilt by mass tourism, offering the privacy and peaceful vacations even in the high season.
